Velvi a registered Trust for promoting Arts and Culture is also actively involved in Spreading Awareness about Autism and helping children and adults with Autism through Drama Training and arts based therapy. Very often we receive queries regarding training programmes and courses on Drama Therapy and Applied Drama. To meet the demand Velvi proposes a Certificate Course On Drama For Autism.

Course Material : The course material is written in simple English that can be understood easily by parents and teachers. You don't need a degree in Drama to Understand. The Material will be sent once in 15 days and each course material will have a short test and assignment to follow.

Parents of children with autism/ teachers in special needs schools and students of Drama and Special Education are eligible to study the course.

No minimum educational qualification required.

Ability to understand instructions in English and capacity to understand lessons in English is required.

Internationally well known course tutors Mrs. Mythily Chary, Mr. Andrew Nelson, Ms. Nickki Bettcher, Ms. Paula Carter and Prof. Parasuram Ramamoorthi would instruct you on basic issues related to Autism and how to manage Autism through Drama training. The course would be application oriented and at the end of the course you will have the confidence to meet with a child or adult with Autism. You will have enough experience to enrich the potentials of the child/adult. Basic tools like Mask for Autism, Role-play, social skills, career oriented set /costume design would enrich your knowledge of Autism

The course materials would be self-learning mode and any doubts and questions would be cleared through email and webinars. There would be a Contact programme at the end of five months and the programme would give an opportunity for learners to meet with tutors and have a practical experience of Drama for Autism. Attendance at the Contact Programme is essential to for the award of the Certificate.

Course Fee : Rupees Three Thousand only. Please send a Draft or at par cheque in favour of VELVI. Overseas students will pay a fee of 150 USD.

Dates : Course starts on 1 January 2012 and will be completed on 30 June 2012.

Last date for registration : 30 November 2011.

Those interested may write to Parasuram Ramamoorthi at parasuram.ramamoorthi@gmail.com for application form and other details.
